

Mrs. Hall got some honey from him, that's all. I spent the night at Edwin Carpender's.

MR. STUDER: That is Saturday night?

A yes. I finally got Mrs. Stevens over the telephone in New York, either talked to her or her sister and I am a little at fault here in my memory. I stayed overnight anyway on Saturday night with Edwin Carpender and the funeral was on what - Tuesday?

MR. PFEIFFER: No, Monday.

A Monday; that's my recollection of it, although someone seemed to think it was on Tuesday. It was on Monday. Now, I cannot remember right now, although Mrs. Stevens can tell you, whether I went to New York on Sunday or not.

MR. STUDER: It would appear from this statement that you did, that Sunday afternoon and evening you went to New York to apartment 120 East 31st Street and stayed there overnight.

MR. STEVENS: When was this statement made?

MR. PFEIFFER: That was a statement you gave to me in 1922.

A In 1922; well, you see, I cannot remember whether I went on Sunday or not, but I think I did.
